

Time recording (employee overview)

When you select an employee from the list, all the working hours recorded are displayed for the period specified.

Staff in HR departments can subsequently edit or capture the entries, e.g. If an employee has no online access to the time recording function because of an external meeting or attendance at vocational school.