Time recording for employees

There are various ways for employees to record their working hours, breaks and project times. Individual functions can be restricted by the HR department, e.g. by disabling the chatbot Danielle Talk or retroactive time recording.

The options available without restrictions are listed below:

- Time recording via the application
- Time recording via the chabot 'Danielle Talk'