

Setup of special working hours

If you would like to define other types of activities besides work, you can do so under Special working hours. Examples for such activities are further training or attendance at the vocational school. You can indicate whether the activity is relevant to the budget and which subsidiary/company the entry applies to.

[illegible]