

Setup of annual closure

---

An annual closure is a period of time in which the employer uniformly puts all or some of the employees on leave. For factories, this is also known as works holidays or plant vacation. In case of an annual closure, the company is usually shut down for a limited period of time.

