

Locking working time account queries in the chatbot

---

No employees (neither staff nor HR) in the company/companies selected have access to their working time accounts via the chatbot and thus the times recorded. Time recording using the chatbot is excluded from this restriction. The query feature in the application needs to be locked separately, if necessary (see Hiding the working time account for employees).