

Updating terminal static data automatically

If you purchased our time recording terminal, it makes sense to select this checkbox so that your employees who have an entry under "External time recording ID" and thus own a transponder have their information automatically transferred/updated as terminal static data in the time recording terminal.

Update terminal master data automatically

Employees with an entry in "External time recording ID" are automatically transferred/updated as terminal master data