Documents

Documents are entries that can be uploaded as an attachment at certain places in the personnel file and that are saved individually for the respective

The upload locations within the employee file and the number of permissible documents can be configured in the setup. Alternately, documents can be freely uploaded and saved in the employee file under "Documents".

- My entriesEffective entriesDocument history
- Adding new documents and assigning a storage location